3) Exhibitors selling products designed and made by themselves from raw materials

We should like to point out that these two events (Christmas Market until 26 December and New Year's Market from 28 December 2011 to 1 January 2012) are to be regarded as separate events and that no one who registers for the Christmas Market is obliged to register for the New Year's Market. Participation in the New Year's Market alone is not possible.

I / we will be offering the following products (please provide detailed information). A booth or decoration concept and brochures or photos of the products are to be included with your registration. Alternatively, you can send samples or bring them in person (by appointment). The booth should have a specific theme. Food and drink exhibitors are requested to present two concepts. Photos, samples, catalogues, concepts, etc., will not be returned. If you are registering for the New Year's Market, please indicate whether you will be offering different products and provide details.
